SAVANNAH, Ga. (December 16, 2016) – Parker's, an award-winning convenience store leader, recently donated $2,500 to Candler County Public Schools through the company's popular Fueling the Community program, which donates a portion of the sale of every gallon of gas on the first Wednesday of each month to area schools. The check donation took place at a special ceremony at Metter Elementary School in Metter, Ga.

Jeff Bush, Director of Operations at Parker's, presented the check to Metter Elementary Principal Lesa Brown as well as students and teachers, who accepted the check on behalf of the school system. This donation is part of more than $100,000 Parker's donates to area public and private schools each year.

"Education has the power to transform lives in Candler County," said Jeff Bush, Director of Operations at Parker's. "On behalf of the entire team at Parker's, we are thrilled to support teachers and students right here in Candler County. Thank you for everything you do to support student success and to make the future brighter."

Parker's has been ranked on Inc.'s elite list of the top 5,000 fastest-growing private companies in the U.S. for four consecutive years. The company currently operates 46 convenience stores across the region and employs 825 individuals throughout Georgia and South Carolina. Parker's, which completes more than 110,000 transactions daily, recently celebrated its 40th anniversary.

ABOUT PARKER'S:

Parker's is dedicated to a superior customer experience and operates 46 convenience stores throughout southeast Georgia and South Carolina. Headquartered in Savannah, Ga., Parker's has a commitment to exceeding customer expectations and has been recognized as one of the nation's pre-eminent convenience store and gourmet deli operators. The company's PumpPal loyalty program, which includes more than 125,000 members, has saved Parker's customers more than $7 million. Parker's also gives back to every community where stores are located through the Fueling the Community Program, which donates a portion of the profit of every gallon of gas sold on the first Wednesday of the month to area schools. In addition, the company endowed the Parker's Emergency and Trauma Center at Memorial Hospital in Savannah, donates gas cards to benefit cancer patients, spearheads an Anti-Litter Campaign in Savannah and serves as the presenting sponsor for Picnic in the Park, a free outdoor concert held in Savannah every October.
